

From: George Flake
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/16/02 1:00pm
Subject: Comments

I believe that the Justice Department and the various states involved should drop their charges against Microsoft. These antitrust charges have cost Microsoft, US Taxpayers, Microsoft stock holders and the general economy an enormous amount of money. Continuing these charges will add substantially to the losses of taxpayes and stock holders. Microsoft is one of the most innovative companys in the world. Let them continue their innovation which has been and will continue to benefit the US and world economy.

George H. Flake
17867 Amberwood Lane
South Bend, IN 46635